Conditions

- The making of photocopies or other reproduction of copyrighted material may be subject to copyright law, including the U.S. Copyright Act (Title 17, U.S. Code).
- Under certain conditions specified by the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy of other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that photocopy or other reproduction is not to be “used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research.” If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of “fair use”, that user may be liable for copyright infringement.
- Permission of the copyright holder must be obtained by the user in the event that the copyright is not held by Southwestern College. It is the user’s obligation to determine and satisfy copyright or other use restrictions. Any use of protected works beyond that allowed by fair use requires the written permission of the copyright owners. Researches must make their own assessment of rights in light of their intended use.
- This institution reserves the right not to provide archival or special collections material on request if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the request would involve violation of copyright laws.
- All reproduced materials must be credited as follows: Courtesy, Southwestern College Deets Library, Winfield, Kansas, followed by the collection title. The credit line should appear as close to the item as possible.
- Permission to publish, reproduce, distribute, or display materials is granted for a one-time use only.
- I shall provide Southwestern College Deets Library with a copy, free of charge, of any publication resulting from the use of the SC Archives or Special Collections.

I have read and agree to the conditions above.
